

KAREN HUMPHREY-JOHNSON: College Success

Karen Humphrey-Johnson holds an MS in College Student Development and Counseling from Northeastern University. Her passion is helping students transition from high school to college and helping them maximize their college experience by developing leadership and critical thinking skills through diverse experiences and by making connections with faculty staff, and peers. Her career in student affairs includes positions in residence life, admissions, orientation, first-year programs, judicial affairs, and parent programs. Her other interests include student success coaching and women's issues on campus.
