Join family and friends as we gather together for one of Bedford's traditions, the annual Tree Lighting.

At 6:15, Recreation Kids' Club Staff will delight the children with stories of the season in the First Parish Church on the Common.

At 6:45, gather on the Town Common in preparation of the grand count down and enjoy the music of Tree Lighting quartet "The Bedford Four." At 7:00 p.m. Citizen of the Year Ralph Hammond will do the honor of turning on the lights when the count reaches "one."

Once the Common is aglow, a special visitor from the North Pole will arrive atop a shiny red fire engine with candy cane treats and wishes for a very special holiday season.

As the evening winds down and everyone heads home, the holiday lights will continue to shine into the New Year.
